WHAT IS PARTY FEALTY P

A Sad Example.

We select the following editorial from the Bates County Democrat :

This glorious old Democratic township When the day of battle came, and the contest was between a Democrat (however objectionable he may have been to some) and a Radical, they went to a man for the Democrat. Warner Cobb called in to see us on Tuesday and he informs us that Edwards was not scratched by a solitary Democrat, but that they all mited on Sulns and Elwards, notwithstanding the dark stories that were aftent. It is true Democracy when a Radical is likely to be elected, to turn out and go for the Democrat, although he may not be their choice, and a great many did that in Grand River.

There it is. That example of party slavery is as fair a one as bas ever "Notwithstanding the dark stories that Blow. were affoat," the candidates were unanimously supported by the Democracy of Grand River Township, a Radical was likely to be elected. jority. country. This is the very hellish prin- show, for 20,000 tickets ourself. ciple upon which Radicalism has acted. "Go for the nominee," is the slogan of the party managers, whether discipline demands that the nominee J. M. C. Breaker, D. D. One of the must be voted for at the polls. This reduces the solution of all principles the country, as it has already mor. ribs, and at another, a finger. tally wounded the Democratic party. If the American people are ever to recover their lost glory, it must be by the election of good and pure men under all circumstances, and the proverbial defeat of those about whom "dark stories" are told and Cholera in nearly all the towns between believed.

We have not entered into the merits of the case in Grand River township; for we are not acquainted with any of the persons named. We have simply sought to combat the outrageous principle involved in the presentation of the case by the Bates County Democrat. Nominee or no nominee, Democrat, Radical or Neutral Nincompoop, the Caucasian will never, knowingly, support any man who is unworthy, -who is a scoundrel or an imbecile! And, party or no party, it will ever be found battling for the best man, the principles it deems just, the cause it believes to be right! Principle before Party.
